Introduction

The Registry of Friendly Societies (RFS) is a statutory office of the Department of Enterprise Tourism and Employment.

The RFS deals with three different entity types, namely industrial and provident societies which in the main consist of co-operatives, friendly societies, and trade unions which include employee unions, employer associations and trade associations.

The principal legislation governing these entities is:

- Industrial and Provident Societies Acts, 1893 – 2021.
- Friendly Societies Acts, 1896 – 2021
- Trade Union Acts, 1871 – 1990.

Statement of Strategy

The Mission Statement of the Registry of Friendly Societies is:

“To ensure that the various mutual entities registered at the Registry, which are subject to general regulation and supervision in varying degrees by the Registrar of Friendly Societies, comply with their statutory obligations and to maintain an up-to-date public record on those entities”.

This mission statement is accomplished through two core objectives, namely:

- The efficient and effective registration and general regulation of industrial and provident societies, friendly societies, and trade unions.
- The provision of an efficient and effective service to the public.

2024 Overview

At the end of 2024 there were 964 industrial and provident societies, 46 friendly societies and 46 trade unions on the register, making a combined total of 1,056 registered entities. As such, 2024 saw a decrease of 2 in the number of societies/trade unions on the register compared to the end of 2023.

The chart below shows the ratio of industrial and provident societies, friendly societies, and trade unions on the register at 31 December 2024.

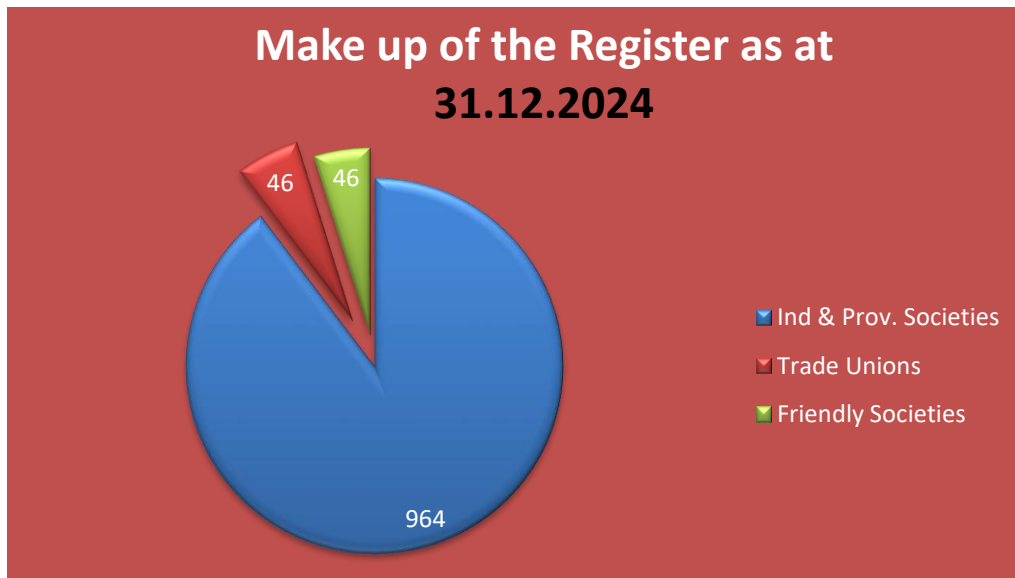

Fig. 1: Ratio of I&P Societies, Friendly Societies and Trade Unions at end 2024

Details of the various registrations completed during 2024 are set out in the following pages of this report.

There are additional matters which a registered society or trade union must register or record in addition to sending annual returns and accounts to the Registrar, and these matters include:

- partial and complete rule amendments/alterations,
- changes of name and registered office,
- special resolutions.

Details of each of the above matters are also included in this report.

The RFS customer service targets regarding processing applications and making documents available to the public range from five to ten working days in respect of correctly completed applications and are dependent on the nature of the application involved. These targets were achieved during 2024.

From time to time the RFS carries out targeted enforcement campaigns aimed at identifying societies and unions overdue in their annual return filing obligations, seeking their compliance in coming up to date on the register and, where this cannot be achieved, ultimately cancelling the registration of those entities, and removing them from the register. The reminder campaign in 2024 resulted in the majority of societies bringing their filings up to date. The RFS continues to monitor compliance with a view to encouraging all societies to file on a timely basis, and where necessary will initiate further targeted compliance and enforcement drives.

Important note on the submission of annual returns

Accounts for societies are required to be audited in accordance with the relevant legislation i.e. the Industrial and Provident Societies Acts 1893 to 2021 or the Friendly Societies Acts 1896 to 2021.

A significant number of accounts submitted to the RFS contain references to companies and to the Companies Act. Where accounts submitted, whether in the auditor's report or the officer's statements, refer to the entity as a company or to the Companies Act, the submission will be rejected and returned to the presenter for correction.

The auditor's report should refer to the appropriate legislation for the entity concerned.

References to entity types should be to an industrial and provident society or a friendly society as appropriate.

Forms and audited accounts must be wet signed original signatures of the statutory auditor and the committee of management. There is no provision under the Industrial and Provident Societies Acts 1893 to 2021 or the Friendly Societies Acts 1896 to 2021 for type signed or other type signatures.

Only the registered name of the entity as it appears on the public register should be used on the forms and the accounts. The registered name should not be abbreviated. The Industrial and Provident Societies Acts 1893-2021 do not provide for the use of abbreviations of "Limited" or "Teoranta".

Audited Accounts for Trade Unions should reference the Trade Union Acts 1871-1990 and should have wet signed original signatures of officers and auditor. Only registered rules should be attached to the annual return form with the signed audited accounts.

The Companies (Miscellaneous Provisions) (Covid-19) Act 2020 came into effect in August 2020 and made temporary amendments to the Companies Act 2014 and the Industrial and Provident Societies Act 1893 to address Covid-19 related issues. The Act provided for the holding of Annual General Meetings and general meetings by electronic means. It also made provision in respect of business solvency by extending the period of examinership and increasing the threshold at which a company is deemed unable to pay its debts. The temporary amendments to the Industrial and Provident 1893 continued until end 2024 with the statutory instrument: S.I. No. 647/2023 - Industrial and Provident Societies Act 1893 (Section 14A(1)) (Covid-19) Order 2023.
